

While I applaud the FCCs "Do Not Call" proposal, I would not want to see it lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's privacy law has reduced the number of unwanted marketing calls I get from ten or so a week to zero. I value my privacy at home and would not want the FCCs law to pre-empt the Indiana Privacy Law, which works wonderfully well. Thank you for your consideration.